ASX RELEASE:

11 January 2022
ASX: TOM

ASX delisting of Tomizone Limited

Tomizone Limited (ASX: TOM) (Tomizone) has been working with the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) to agree a timetable for the re-quotation of Tomizone shares on the ASX.

Unfortunately, Tomizone has received advice from ASX that it intends to remove Tomizone from the Official List of ASX prior to the commencement of trading on Wednesday 12 January 2022 in accordance with Listing Rule 17.12 and Guidance Note 33.

Whilst the removal from the Official List of ASX is disappointing, the Board of Tomizone remain committed, together with the support of major creditors and financiers, to the financial restructure of the Tomizone group and is evaluating with its financial advisors the potential to relist Tomizone on ASX in the coming months. Further communications with shareholders will follow in due course.

The FY20 and FY21 Annual General Meetings of Tomizone, scheduled for 31 January 2022, will be held as advised.

Authorised for release by the Board of Directors.

About Tomizone

Tomizone offers an extensive suite of managed services, encompassing WiFi & Analytics, Business Cloud Applications, VoIP, Data Redundancy, Business Security and Point of Sale. A monthly subscription model for all services gives SME through to multi-site enterprise clients a predictable, consolidated fee for all hardware, software, email, backup, telephony and security requirements, along with best-in-class priority support. As a managed services provider, the Company's strategy is simple: increase a client's bottom line, reduce their ICT burden, and harness their competitive edge by facilitating a stronger connection with their customers.
