

$13.5 Million U.S. Government Contract

- A repeat U.S. Government order of $13.5 million contract for its C-UxS systems.
- Full delivery and cash receipt is expected in 4Q2024.

DroneShield Ltd (ASX:DRO) (DroneShield or the Company) is pleased to announce it has received a repeat order of $13.5 million from a U.S. Government customer for a number of its dismounted Counter-UxS (C-UxS) systems. DroneShield expects to deliver in full this quarter.

“DroneShield’s ability to rapidly deliver high-performance, lifesaving technology at this scale sets us apart in the counter-UAS industry, empowering our clients with cutting-edge solutions precisely when they need it,” stated Tom Branstetter, DroneShield’s Director of Business Development.

Matt McCrann, DroneShield US CEO, commented: “Our team appreciates the opportunity to support this urgent requirement and continue to build strong relationships with our federal partners.” He added, “Providing solutions that deliver a decisive advantage to our end users is what we strive for – the speed and scale at which we can now deliver, speaks volumes of our team members and their commitment to our customer and their mission.”
