ASX Market Announcements

SUSPENSION FROM QUOTATION ON ASX ON 27 DECEMBER 2024

Golden Cross Resources Ltd (“GCR”) advises that the Australian Securities Exchange (“ASX”) has advised that it is not satisfied that GCR’s level of operations is of a level sufficient to satisfy the requirements of Listing Rule 12.1 due to limited expenditure on exploration activities and lack of ground-disturbing activities.

Consequently, the securities of GCR will be suspended from quotation on ASX at the commencement of trading on Friday, 27 December 2024.

GCR plans to carry out field exploration programs in the next 2 quarters as announced in its release to ASX on 20 December 2024. GCR believes that completion of these exploration activities together with additional ground-disturbing activities would assist GCR to satisfy ASX on its level of operations for a decision to reinstate the securities of GCR for quotation.

In addition GCR is continuing discussions with potential joint venture partners for its Copper Hill Project. In the event that a transaction is completed from these discussions GCR expects a significant increase in exploration activities together with cash injection.
